

Wood awarded YMCA's top honor

Matt Wood, an Albemarle native, knows how to multi-task. His countless roles throughout the Albemarle community require it. In addition to co-owning Albemarle Propane and running George Wood Farms with his family, Wood is a Pasquotank County Commissioner, District Chair of the North Carolina Association of County Commissioners, Treasurer for the Centennial Authority, College of Albemarle board member, Elizabeth City Rotary Club member, Elizabeth City Area Chamber of Commerce board member, is involved with the Albemarle Economic Development Commission and serves as Board Chair for the Albemarle Family YMCA.

It is this last role that he was honored for during the YMCA of South Hampton Roads' Annual Meeting at the Norfolk Waterside Marriott on Jan. 25. Wood was honored with the highest award given by the YMCA of South Hampton Roads, the Order of the Red Triangle. This award is given to volunteers who, over a period of years, have given unselfishly of their abilities and resources to advance the work of the YMCA.
