

Va. Tech banner signing at YMCA

The Outer Banks community is invited to sign a condolence/memory banner for the Virginia Tech students and university at the Outer Banks Family YMCA through Monday, April 23.

YMCA members and guests began signing the banner Wednesday, April 18, with messages of love, support, and prayers. Should the banner be filled, a second banner will be provided. Outer Banks YMCA staff will ship the banner(s) to Virginia Tech Tuesday, April 24.

Outer Banks Family YMCA is located at 3000 S. Croatan Highway, M.P. 11 on the bypass in Nags Head. For more information, please call 252-449-8897.

From Nags Head to Blacksburg

THIS BANNER, filled with messages of support and prayers for the Virginia Tech community in the wake of last Monday's killings, sits in the lobby of the Outer Banks Family YMCA in Nags Head. The YMCA, which started the banner signing Wednesday, invites anyone in the community to drop in and sign the banner through Monday, as it will be shipped to Tech on Tuesday. By Thursday, another banner already had been filled with signatures and messages. (J. Streit photo)